Introduction

Introduction

On April 1, 2000, the U.S. Census Bureau conducted the 22nd national census. The decennial census is the only national survey providing consistent, uniform measures and data for every geographic area in the nation. The results capture a picture in time of the population of Utah; who we are, how we've changed, and the direction we are heading- demographically, socially, and economically.

Cities and Counties of Utah is the first in a series of Census 2000 Briefs to provide detailed analysis of the Utah Census 2000 data. This report contains tables, figures, and maps showing current and historical population data for Utah's counties, cities, census designated places (CDPs), and reservations.

The report begins with a 1990-2000 summary population table for the U.S., Utah, and Utah's counties and cities. This section is followed by more detailed demographic analysis of the state, including data on population density, land area, and growth and size rankings. The last section of the report provides users with a historical look at Utah and the growth that has occurred over the last hundred years.

State of Utah

Utah's April 1, 2000 population reached 2,233,169. This represents a population increase of 510,319 persons, or 29.6% from 1990, ranking Utah fourth among states in the rate of population growth from 1990 to 2000. Utah grew more than twice as fast as the U.S. (13.2%) during this ten year period.

Utah, as well as four of its neighboring states, ranked as the five fastest growing states in the country during the last decade. They include: Nevada (66.3%), Arizona (40.0%), Colorado (30.6%), Utah (29.6%), and Idaho (28.5%).

Utah's Counties

Largest. Salt Lake County continues to be the state's largest county with a population of 898,387 in 2000, followed by Utah County (368,536), Davis (238,994), Weber (196,533), Cache (91,391), and Washington

(90,354) Counties. Daggett County remains the smallest county in the state with a 2000 population of 921.

Three out of every four people in the state live in the northern metropolitan area, including Weber, Davis, Salt Lake, and Utah Counties, where 1,702,450 residents, or 76% of the state's population reside.

Fastest Growing. Summit County was the fastest growing county over the decade, nearly doubling in size and increasing 92%, from 15,518 in 1990 to 29,736 in 2000. Seventy percent of the growth occurred in the unincorporated area of the county.

Washington and Iron County were the second and third fastest growing counties, respectively, in the state during the 1990s. Washington County, with an 86% increase over the decade, grew at nearly three times the state rate. Iron County, grew more than twice the state rate from 1990-2000, with a 63% increase.

Five of the state's fastest growing counties form a ring of high growth around the northern metropolitan counties. These counties include Summit (92%); Tooele (53%); Wasatch (51%); Juab (42%); and Sanpete (40%).

Among the other fastest growing counties in the state are Utah (40%); Daggett (34%); and Cache (30%) Counties. Carbon County, with a growth rate of just 1% over the decade, was the slowest growing county in the state.

Most Dense. Salt Lake County remains the most densely populated county in the state with 1,218.4 persons per square mile. Other densely populated counties include Davis (784.9); Weber (341.5); Utah (184.4); Cache (78.5); and Washington (37.2). Garfield County is the least dense county in the state with less than one person per square mile.

Utah's Cities

Largest. Salt Lake City continues to be the largest city in the state with a 2000 population of 181,743, followed by West Valley City (108,896); Provo (105,166); Sandy (88,418); Orem (84,324); Ogden (77,226); West Jordan (68,336); Layton (58,474); Taylorsville (57,439); and St. George (49,663).

Fastest Growing. The City of Draper lead the way among the state's fastest growing cities (greater than 9,000). Draper more than tripled in size from 1990-2000, increasing by 18,000 people, or 248%. Several other of the state's largest cities doubled in size over the decade, including South Jordan (141%); Lehi (125%); Riverton (122%); and Syracuse (102%).

Most Dense. Taylorsville is the most densely populated city in the state with 5,376.2 persons per square mile. Other densely populated Utah cities include Midvale (4,627.4); Orem (4,573.6); Washington Terrace (4,477.4); Roy (4,330.8); Sandy (3,961.5); and South Ogden (3,917.1). Howell Town in Box Elder County is the least dense city/town with only 6.2 persons per square mile.

Utah's Census Designated Places (CDPs)

A CDP is a statistical entity comprising a dense concentration of population that is not within an incorporated place but is locally identified by a name. CDPs are delineated cooperatively with state and local and tribal government officials based on Census Bureau guidelines. For the first time in Census 2000, CDPs do not have to meet a population threshold to qualify for tabulation of census data.

Largest. The ten largest census designated places in Utah in 2000 are all located in Salt Lake County. Kearns CDP is the largest with a population of 33,659, followed by Millcreek CDP (30,377); Cottonwood Heights CDP (27,569); Magna CDP (22,770); and East Millcreek CDP (2,385).

Fastest Growing. Of those CDPs present in both the 1990 Census and Census 2000, Montezuma Creek CDP had the largest percent change in population over the decade (214.9%). Erda CDP was the second fastest growing CDP, increasing by 127.5%, followed by Stansbury Park CDP (122.1%); Little Cottonwood Creek CDP (43.2%); and Oquirrh CDP (36.8%).

Most Dense. The eleven most densely populated CDPs in the state are located in Salt Lake County. Kearns CDP is the most dense with 6,994.1 persons per square mile, followed by White City CDP (6,912.6); Millcreek CDP (6,160.5); Oquirrh CDP (5,950.3); and Canyon Rim CDP (5,033.6).

Historical Population

The final section of this report contains historical population tables for the United States, Utah, and Utah's counties and cities. The historical data dates back to 1790 for the nation, 1850 for the state and its counties, and 1890 for cities.

Additional Information

American FactFinder. American FactFinder is a dynamic search feature on the U.S. Census Bureau's web site that allows users to access Census Bureau data quickly and easily. The system is interactive and gives Census Bureau customers more flexibility to request the data they need for their geography of interest.

American FactFinder offers data from Census 2000, the 1990 Decennial Census, the Economic Census, and the American Community Survey. To access American FactFinder go to factfinder.census.gov or go to the Census Bureau's web site (www.census.gov) and click on A or American FactFinder.

State Data Center. Electronic versions of tables and figures in this report are available by contacting the Utah State Data Center staff at (801) 538-1036. Census 2000 data for the state of Utah is available on the Demographic and Economic Analysis web site: www.governor.state.ut.us/dea. Census Briefs will be posted (in pdf format) to this site as they are available.

Note: The Utah Population Estimates Committee provided April 1, 2000 population estimates for the following areas:

Hanksville (missed by Census Bureau), 240, resulting Balance of Wayne County, 986; Hooper (from CDP to incorporated city), 4,081, resulting Balance of Weber County, 13,694; West Jordan (annexation), 78,714, resulting Balance of Salt Lake County, 199,264. In the case of West Jordan, only the annexation increment of 10,378 impacts the Balance of County figure. These estimates are not included in the Census 2000 data in this publication.

Census designated places (CDPs) are delineated for each decennial census as the statistical counterparts of incorporated places. CDPs are delineated to provide data for settled concentrations of population that are identifiable by name but are not legally incorporated under the laws of the state in which they are located. The boundaries usually are defined in cooperation with local or tribal officials. These boundaries, which usually coincide with visible features or the boundary of an adjacent incorporated place or other legal entity boundary, have no legal status, nor do these places have officials elected to serve traditional municipal functions. CDP boundaries may change from one decennial census to the next with changes in the settlement pattern; a CDP with the same name as in an earlier census does not necessarily have the same boundary.

Notes:

- 1) Before Carbon County was formed from Emery County in 1894, population was included with that of Emery County.
- 2) Daggett County was organized from Uintah County in 1918; before that time population was included with Uintah County.
- 3) Duchesne was created from Wasatch County in 1915; before that time, population was included with Wasatch County.
- 4) Emery was organized in 1880 from parts of Sanpete, Sevier, and Wasatch counties; later, part of Emery County was taken to form Grand County in 1890 and Carbon County in 1894; therefore, population figures for 1880 and 1890 include residents living in what became Grand and Carbon counties.
- 5) Part of Kane County was annexed to Garfield County between 1890 and 1894; therefore, some of the residents counted in Kane County for 1870, 1880, and 1890 were living in what became Garfield County.
- 6) Grand County was formed from Emery County in 1890; therefore, residents in 1880 are included in the count for Emery County.
- 7) Part of Kane County was annexed to Garfield County between 1890 and 1900; thus Kane County totals for 1870, 1880, and 1890 include people living in what became Garfield County.
- 8) Part of Piute County was taken to form Wayne County in 1892, and part was annexed to Sevier County in 1902; therefore, totals for Piute County in 1870, 1880, 1890, and 1900 include those people residing in what became parts of Wayne and Sevier counties.
- 9) Part of Uintah County was annexed to Duchesne County in 1917, and Daggett County was created from Uintah County in 1918; population figures for 1880, 1890, 1900, and 1910 include people living in those areas that became part of Duchesne County and Daggett County.
- 10) Uintah County was organized in 1880 from part of Wasatch County; 1870 census for Wasatch County therefore includes people living in what became Uintah County. Duchesne County was organized from part of Wasatch County in 1915; Wasatch County census before 1920 therefore includes those living in what became Duchesne County.
- 11) Wayne County was formed from Piute County in 1892; therefore, totals for Piute County in 1870, 1880, and 1890 include those living in what became Wayne County.

Notes:

- 1) Before Carbon County was formed from Emery County in 1894, population was included with that of Emery County.
- 2) Daggett County was organized from Uintah County in 1918; before that time population was included with Uintah County.
- 3) Duchesne was created from Wasatch County in 1915; before that time, population was included with Wasatch County.
- 4) Emery was organized in 1880 from parts of Sanpete, Sevier, and Wasatch counties; later, part of Emery County was taken to form Grand County in 1890 and Carbon County in 1894; therefore, population figures for 1880 and 1890 include residents living in what became Grand and Carbon counties.
- 5) Part of Kane County was annexed to Garfield County between 1890 and 1894; therefore, some of the residents counted in Kane County for 1870, 1880, and 1890 were living in what became Garfield County.
- 6) Grand County was formed from Emery County in 1890; therefore, residents in 1880 are included in the count for Emery County.
- 7) Part of Kane County was annexed to Garfield County between 1890 and 1900; thus Kane County totals for 1870, 1880, and 1890 include people living in what became Garfield County.
- 8) Part of Piute County was taken to form Wayne County in 1892, and part was annexed to Sevier County in 1902; therefore, totals for Piute County in 1870, 1880, 1890, and 1900 include those people residing in what became parts of Wayne and Sevier counties.
- 9) Part of Uintah County was annexed to Duchesne County in 1917, and Daggett County was created from Uintah County in 1918; population figures for 1880, 1890, 1900, and 1910 include people living in those areas that became part of Duchesne County and Daggett County.
- 10) Uintah County was organized in 1880 from part of Wasatch County; 1870 census for Wasatch County therefore includes people living in what became Uintah County. Duchesne County was organized from part of Wasatch County in 1915; Wasatch County census before 1920 therefore includes those living in what became Duchesne County.
- 11) Wayne County was formed from Piute County in 1892; therefore, totals for Piute County in 1870, 1880, and 1890 include those living in what became Wayne County.
